Outpatient therapy spots open, co-occurring openings

Psychiatry open

Neurofeedback program in place

COS class in October

Professional Development offerings:

PSI

Childwise Resiliency Summit September /Some of team AWARE and Family Outreach didn't get it.

Legislative Forum 9/15 from 6:30-8:30

Funding updates, changes, opportunities, GAPS:

Joint interest in getting parenting classes in the Jail. Kate and Brie will approach

Hoping that will lead to transition planning, increased natural supports, get grandparents/caregivers and parents to speak the same language when parent gets out of prison and ensure the focus is on the relationship and supporting the attachment.

Trista and county attorney met and Trista met with team a couple times and spoke about brain development, trauma focus, etc. The group is open and wants to learn more. Have EBM, data outcome info, need to find a way to offer payment in this picture to offer sustainability. Maybe MARC grant could help cover?

Question: can HSS start earlier? Can we start in infancy?

Answer, Yes. But really, you can have up to 5 years.

We need to do better creating a connection between HSS and Family Outreach work with families. There is clarity needed to see what services can be provided, where things are overlapped, what is best practice?

Name change possibility, “Integrated Team, We have IT.”

Would be nice to have CASA at the table.

Sally Tillman/Zoie Bernard/Jen Rieden—can we have a conversation???

Advocacy needs: Take restriction off of HSS (365 day rule) and eligibility “hoops”

Team support for complicated case:

Follow up tasks?

Paula will connect with CPS to get a start on the letter. Also, we will need to talk about the discrepancies between CPS office information needs.

Kate will ask Judge Reynolds

Brie and Kate will work on Sheriff Dutton: is Adult probation/parole within the county

Steff will invite a CASA—maybe Kirsten and/or Michelle

Steff will ask Pam to lead the maternal mental health section

Brie to send Steff the info about the legislative forum

Brie send invite to ECC
